1. A seed sprouts and sends out roots and shoots.
2. The young plant emerges from the ground, and leaves start to develop.
3. The mature plant flowers.
4. Bees and other insects pollinate the flowers.
5. Seeds form on the plant.
6. When seeds are ripe, they fall to the ground and the growth cycle begins again.